

The reason why I promote other radio shows is because I feel building an audience on internet radio is important and we as a broadcasting community should support one another. I believe in underground internet radio and before you know it, IP radio will be the normal putting air waves out of business! Mark my words.